

The AMOAQ has partnered with Lloyds Auctions to bring game owners an excellent opportunity to sell surplus games and related equipment via online auction in November, 2018.

Lloyds Auctions is offering you the chance to sell any surplus or unwanted Arcade games (working or not) in an unprecedented auction of amusement machines!

As we approach the Christmas schools holiday period now is the ideal time to cash in old or unwanted games and reinvest that cash in upgrading your games!

Lloyds Auctions has a huge national following with over 35 auctions every week, they attract hundreds of thousands of people from all over Australia looking to buy and sell anything and everything!

The November auction brings an exciting opportunity for you to tap into the huge market at Lloyds Auctions and be part of their biggest arcade machine auction yet! This auction applies to Pinball machines, Arcade video games, Driving games, Crane games, Redemption games, Pool tables, Air Hockey games in fact any coin operated type arcade game working or not.

This is the perfect opportunity for Amusement game owners, businesses and suppliers to connect with Operators, private owners and enthusiasts alike to buy or sell or both! If you have 1 game or 100 games or anything in between this auction is for you plus if you're also a member of the AMOAQ or NAMOA there is an exclusive discounted commission rate available. Register with Lloyds Auctions by the end of October to make the most of this fantastic opportunity.

If you have any questions or you have arcade games to sell telephone Paul Thomasson at Lloyds Auction direct on: 0451 824 277 or by email at paul@lloydsauctions.com.au
